

I love my body
because it allows me
to have fun!

What does your body allow you to do?

A large, empty rectangular area with a thick, blue, scalloped border, intended for drawing or writing.

Every Body Is Beautiful

Let's learn to love our bodies for what they are - a tool. A tool that allows us to walk, to breathe, to dance, to do all the things we love. This campaign started as an idea from our Youth Ambassadors and has grown into an educational resource, national t-shirt campaign, community events, and most recently a published children's book to spread body positivity.
